

CANDE SIG Sessions CIES 2019

CANDE SIG Social.

When: Wednesday, April 17 at 5pm

Where: Osha Thai - Embarcadero - 4 Embarcadero Center - Street Level SF, CA 94111

Business Meeting: Citizenship and Democratic Education - CANDE SIG (Details here).

When: 10:00 to 11:30

Where: Hyatt Regency, Street (Level 0), Grand Ballroom A

Activities

Monday, April 15.

8:00 to 9:30. Critical explorations of students' and teachers' experiences of intercultural, citizenship, and democratic education (Details here).

13:30 to 15:00. Young people's perceptions of issues related to global citizenship, environmental sustainability, diversity and civic engagement since 2009. Results from ICCS. (Details here).

13:30 to 15:00. Highlighted session: Critical reflections on refugee and immigrant experiences in the global north and south (Details here).

15:15 to 16:45. Youth activism, engagement and the development of new civic learning spaces across six countries (Details here).

15:15 to 16:45. Critical analyses of civic education and young people's sense of citizenship, civic attitudes, and participation (Details here).

15:15 to 16:45. Collective memory in the Mekong: schooling, history, and politics in an era of regionalization (Details here).

Tuesday, April 16.

10:00 to 11:30. Highlighted session: Rethinking global citizenship education within macro and micro levels (Details here).

10:00 to 11:30. Adopting socio-historical approaches towards understanding citizenship education in east Asia (Details here).

13:30 to 15:00. Exploring factors shaping teachers' and students' civic knowledge and civic attitudes (Details here).

15:15 to 16:45. Investigating ideologies shaping citizenship education in formal curricula and non-formal educational spaces (Details here).

17:00 to 18:30. Investigating how digital technologies shape understandings of citizenship and civic attitudes (Details here).

17:00 to 18:30. Pre-service teacher education and human rights: moving beyond aspirations to good practices (Details here).

Wednesday, April 17.

8:00 to 9:30. Towards an inclusive citizenship and democratic education: engaging questions of access, inequality, and privilege (Details here).

15:15 to 16:45. Citizenship and democratic education in conflict and post-conflict contexts (Details here).

Thursday, April 18.

8:00 to 9:30. Citizenship and democratic education in formal and non-formal contexts (Details here).

8:00 to 9:30. Building the foundations for global citizenship in the early years (Details here).

13:30 to 15:00. Curricular representations of indigenous perspectives: examining stakeholder interactions within African, Asian, and North American contexts (Details here).